Mr. Horsey has introduced into the Senate of New-Jersey a further supplement to the act respecting Annual Reports to the Legislature of Railroad and Canal Companies. It makes it the duty of the New-York and Erie Railroad Company, occupying and using the Paterson and Ramapo Road, and of the Paterson and Hudson River Railroad Company, to make annual reports to the Legislature; and in case of the refusal or neglect of the said Erie Company to make such annual statement, they shall be subject to the penalties imposed by law upon the Canals and Railroads of that State by existing laws for neglect or refusal so to report.

About $23,000 of irandant drafts on New-Bedford, Fairhaven, &c., houses, have appeared, drawn at Boston. About $5,000 were paid previous to the discovery of the fraud. The drafts, although all drawn in favor of different persons, are filled up, with the exception of the payee's name, by the same individual.

Speaking of the rumor in regard to the Bank of Commerce, at Baltimore, The Sun of that place says: "Yesterday there was a brief run upon the Bank, but everything went off satisfactorily. The institution has got $30,000 in circulation, and of that amount $2,000 was yesterday presented at the counter and paid. Some few depositors, also, withdrew their accounts. Should the entire circulation be sent in, Mr. Miller, the Cashier, is fully prepared to meet it promptly. The rumors of defalcations to the extent of sixty or seventy thousand dollars are erroneous. The difference between the account of the Bank and the President will be about $7,000 or $8,000, which may be nearly all secured by the Bank."

About two millions of dollars were due in dividends, this week, at Boston. The Bank dividends were as follows: Atlantic, 4 per cent.; Ains, 4 per cent.; Bank North America, 3 per cent.; Bank Commerce, 4 per cent.; Blackstone, 4 per cent.; Boston, 4 per cent.; Boylston 4 per cent.; Broadway, 4 per cent.; City, 3 per cent.; Colombian, 3 per cent.; Eagle, 4 per cent.; Eliot, 4 per cent.; Exchange, 4 per cent.; Fanueil Hall, 4 per cent.; Freemason's, 5 per cent.; Globe, 4 per cent.; Grocers', 4 per cent.; Hamilton, 4 per cent.; Howard Banking Co., 4 per cent.; Market, 5 per cent.; Massachusetts, 8 per share, 3 1/2 per cent.; Maverick, 3 per cent.; Mechanics', 4 per cent.; Merchants', 4 per cent.; National, 4 per cent.; New England, 4 per cent.; North, 4 per cent.; Shawmut, 4 per cent.; Show and Leather, 4 per cent.; State, 3 per cent.; Suffolk, 5 per cent.; Traders', 4 per cent.; Tremont, 4 per cent.; Union, 4 per cent.; Washington, 3 1/2 per cent.; Webster, 31 per cent.

The aggregate of these dividends is $1,236,650.

The earnings of the Michigan Central Railroad, within 29 miles of Indianapolis. There they are attached to the Main-line trains. Trains have been withdrawn from the Knightstown Road, it being so much out of repair. The connection with the Ohio and Mississippi Road at Seymour has caused some additional travel, but in consequence of the arrangement with the Madison Road, a special train has to be run to connect with Cincinnati and the East.

The funded debt of the Company is $624,900, the floating debt $160,000. During the past year about $90,000 of this was paid. The means were obtained mostly from the earnings of the road, as but thirty-five bonds were sold during the year, it not being deemed advisable to put them in market, such was the depression of railway securities.
